- j. All other documents or records not covered above shall be retained as provided in the concerned legislation/regulation. If there is no legislative provision, the same shall be maintained for a period of 8 (Eight) years.

4.2 Documents Maintenance and Storage

All Documents shall be maintained, either in physical form or electronic form or both, by the respective departments of the Company, to which such Document pertains. All electronic versions of the Documents are to be maintained within the Company's centralized electronic record software database, which is maintained in line with policy of the IT Services department of the Company.

4.3 Disposal of Records

The destruction and disposal of Documents shall be done in compliance with the provisions prescribed under the applicable laws and keeping in view this Policy of the Company. All the Documents containing information of a confidential or sensitive nature on paper, card, or electronic media must be securely destroyed when it is no longer required.

Each department has to conduct a review of retained records every year after the end of first quarter and destroy the records that are not required to be preserved beyond the statutory retention period under proper supervision. All documents having no long term value and which are not part of accounting records, such as memos, progress reports and other informational work paper, need not be preserved. All backup and archive copies of a record must be destroyed when the original is destroyed.

4.4 Hold on record destruction and deletion

If a lawsuit or other proceeding involving the Company is reasonably foreseeable, all destruction of any possibly relevant documents, including e-mail, must cease immediately. Documents relating to the lawsuit or potential legal issue will then be retained and organized under the supervision of the Head (Legal).

Violation of this aspect of the Company's Document Retention Policy could subject the Company and the employees involved to civil and criminal penalties.

4.5 Electronic Documents including emails

All electronic communication systems as well as all communications and stored information transmitted, received, or contained on the Company's information systems are the property of the Company. Such communication and information shall be preserved in accordance with the policy of the Company in respect thereof, which shall be in consonance with this Policy.

5. Policy Enforcement

The employees of the Company shall strictly comply with this Policy. Each Head of the Function /department shall lay down process for maintenance of Documents pertaining to the respective Function/department in compliance of this Policy. A committee consisting of Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Head of Legal & Chief Compliance Officer and Chief Internal Auditor shall circulate a list of laws under which the documents are to be preserved, the type of Documents, the period of preservation and the person/functional head responsible for the same.

If an employee has reasons to believe, or the Company informs the employee concerned, that Company Documents are relevant to litigation or potential litigation (i.e. a dispute that could result in litigation), then the employee must preserve those Documents until the Legal department determines that the Documents are no longer needed. This exception supersedes any previously or subsequently established destruction schedule for those Documents. If an employee(s) believe that exception may apply or have any question regarding the possible applicability of that exception, he/she may contact the Head (Legal).

While minimum retention periods are suggested in regard to certain Documents, the retention of the Documents not included in the above schedules shall be determined by the Head of the Function/Department, in line with the policy that governs those Documents or by the application of the general guidelines affecting such Documents, as well as any other pertinent factors.

6. General

Where the terms of this Policy differ from any existing or newly enacted law, rule, regulation or standard governing the Company, the law, rule, regulation or standard will take precedence over this Policy and procedures until such time as this Policy is changed to conform to the law, rule, regulation or standard.

7. Effective Date

The Policy as approved by the Board of Directors shall be effective from January 28, 2016.

8. Compliance

Failure to comply with this Policy may result in disciplinary action. Questions about this Policy should be referred to the said committee members. The committee will administer, enforce and update this Policy.

9. Amendments

The Company may amend the Policy as and when it deems necessary either pursuant to any change in law or otherwise. The Company shall be free to devise and implement any supplementary or other policies and guidelines in respect hereof for better implementation of this Policy.

This Policy was adopted by Board of Directors at its meeting held on January 28, 2016
